Family Time
The link below is a three minute video on the importance of talking to children about race relations. Parents you may want to watch the video first and then discuss the ideas presented with your children or you may watch it together as a family.

Click here to access the How to Talk to Kids About Race Video by The Atlantic

Starting the Conversation
Have you ever been treated differently from others or seen someone be treated differently in a negative way? Share your experience or what you saw. Why do you think some people dislike or hate people that are different from them?

Building Vocabulary
Differences
Ignorance
Prejudice
Racism

Note: Disney's 2016 movie Zootopia is a great family movie for discussing prejudices!